To Whom It May Concern:

Through this letter, I certify that Mr Abhishek Nagrecha was working with Codium Techlabs Private Limited as a Data Analyst intern, from July 2018 to March 2019. All the services provided by Mr. Nagrecha during this period were found agreeable and to the mark. The main duties that he rendered as a data analyst intern included:

- to identify and repair inaccurate data while providing a unified view of data residing on different sources
- Working closely with the accounting team to ensure that accurate data is entered and analysed to support costing standard updating and financial reporting.
- Troubleshooting the reporting database environment and reports.
- preparing reports for executive leadership that effectively communicate trends, patterns, and predictions using relevant data & ensuring regular data backups, exports, and imports
- Act on cases and provide brief summaries for referral to relevant unit for follow-up review and provide support with technical writing as well as editing.
- enhanced the business by doing daily analysis and business strategies, made social media updates using Tableau and was responsible for tracking and reporting the firm's initiatives and status reports

During this tenure he rendered all these duties with dedication and diligence. We wish that he succeeds in all his future ventures.

For Codium Techlabs Private Limited
